ABOUT US

At our brand, we believe that true beauty begins with authenticity. That's why we specialize in 100% premium raw hair, carefully sourced from the finest supplier in Vietnam, renowned for producing some of the world's most healthy, durable, and naturally beautiful hair.

Every bundle we offer comes from a single donor, ensuring consistency, strength, and a flawless natural texture. We take pride in delivering hair that not only looks luxurious but also lasts, giving you confidence with every wear.

Our process goes beyond sourcing. Each piece is expertly handcrafted into a custom wig, tailored to your exact head measurements for the perfect fit, comfort, and natural finish. No shortcuts, no compromises, just precision and care in every detail.

We are committed to uncompromising quality and elevated luxury standards. From selection to final styling, every step is guided by excellence, ensuring you receive a product that reflects sophistication, durability, and true craftsmanship.

More than just hair, we provide an experience, one that empowers you to feel confident, elegant, and effortlessly beautiful.

HAIR LUSTRE

HIGH

Hair with a high luster appears very silky, glossy, and reflective. This level of shine is often associated with processed hair, silicone-coated hair, or naturally very fine hair. While visually striking, it may not always reflect the natural appearance typically associated with premium raw hair.

MEDIUM

Offers a healthy, balanced shine that reflects light beautifully without appearing overly glossy. This natural luster is commonly found in high-quality raw Cambodian, Vietnamese, and Burmese hair, giving it an authentic and luxurious appearance.

LOW

Can also be found in raw hair, particularly in coarser textures. It reflects less light and often holds curls exceptionally well, though it may not showcase the hair's natural dimension as prominently as medium-luster hair.

Empyrean Hair features a natural medium lustre which is a healthy, balanced shine that reflects light beautifully while maintaining the authentic look and feel of premium raw hair.
